

Doris Merrill's Irish Washerwoman

Australia, NSW, Russell Vale

The musical score consists of four staves of music in G major, 8/8 time. The notes are primarily eighth notes, with some sixteenth-note patterns. Chords are indicated above the staff. The first staff starts with D, followed by two measures of D, then A7, two measures of A7, G, A7, G, D, A7, and D. The second staff continues with D, D, A7, A7, G, A7, G, D, A7, and D. The third staff begins with D, followed by D, Em, Em, G, A7, G, D, A7, and D. The fourth staff concludes with D, followed by D, Em, Em, G, A7, G, D, A7, and D.

Rhythm: Jig

Source: collected from Doris Merrill, Russel Vale, NSW

Notes: Doris Merrill was Alan Musgrove's aunt

Transcription: transcribed & arranged by Alan Musgrove