

School Polka No 1

Australia, Tas, Franklin

The musical score for 'School Polka No 1' is written on four staves in treble clef, with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a 2/4 time signature. The melody is composed of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together. Chord symbols are placed above the staff: D major and A7 (D-F-A-C#) are used throughout. The piece begins with a repeat sign and ends with a double bar line and repeat dots. The notation includes various musical symbols such as stems, beams, and dots to indicate rhythm and pitch.
